

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

29 November 1950

MEMORANDUM FOR: DEPUTY DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: Security of Information
25X1A9a

1. Tentative answers to [redacted] questions re the English system are given in a separate attachment. Because of the great differences in the two systems it is doubtful if we can learn much from the English method.

25X1A9a 2. The National Security Council, on July 18, 1949, approved the charter of the Interdepartmental Committee on Internal Security. The ICIS now has before it the problem suggested by [redacted]. Furthermore, under its broad charter, the ICIS established a Subcommittee on Security of Information. Even though this Subcommittee has a wide range of responsibility the particular subject of security in dealing with the legislature has not yet been referred to it by the ICIS.

3. The Central Intelligence Agency does not have regular membership on the ICIS.

4. It is recommended that a representative of CIA be designated to inquire of the ICIS as to progress made in the subject raised by [redacted] 25X1A9a

JAMES Q. REBER, Chief
Coordination, Operations and Policy Staff

Attachment - 1

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~